CONTRACT FEE

The contract fee must be paid on acceptance of a place at the College and may be forfeited in whole or in part if a resident leaves before the end of the academic year, before the contract period finishes, does not commence an academic year (or semester) having previously accepted a place, or damages College property.

THE DAILY RATE

Full board accommodation outside of the residential contract is $71.00 (inclusive of GST) per day.

APPLICATION OF CONTRACT

Residents may be required to leave on the day following their last exam in November 2017. This provision has been requested by the student body to ensure minimum disturbance of those still completing their exams. If students wish to stay beyond the end of the contract period then they are required to negotiate a possible extension with the Warden, Dean of Residents or Chief Operating Officer.

THE NOTICE PERIOD

A resident who wishes to leave the College before the end of the academic year is required to give notice of at least 8 weeks in advance of the start of the next semester for the termination of residence in relation to the Academic Period. If a resident fails to give the required notice, full payment will be required for the remainder of the Full year contract period. Residents who enter into a contract for a single semester are obligated to meet all fees and charges for the whole contracted semester period.
